AxFlow B.V. new distributor of Neles in Belgium and Luxembourg

Dear customer,

We are pleased to inform you that Neles is strengthening its sales and service activities by introducing AxFlow B.V., as the official distributor for Neles valves in Belgium and Luxembourg.

AxFlow B.V. was founded in 1960 and has become the market leader in fluid handling equipment (pumps, valves, mixers, heat exchangers) in the BeNeLux. Their strong added value in technical knowledge, customer service and stock availability will provide a strong platform for future cooperation with your company.

This transition also includes the transfer of the experienced Account Managers of Neles valves, Natasja van den Bogaert and Michel Vandepitte. Natasja and Michel will remain primary contact for all of your Neles products.

To contact Natasja please call +32 \(0\)473 449 734 or n.vandenbogaert@axflow.nl
To contact Michel please call +32 \(0\)473 449 737 or m.vandepitte@axflow.nl

We trust that we have provided you with sufficient service by informing you about these developments. AxFlow will contact you shortly to keep you informed about the transfer.

Kind regards,

Kees van der Giessen
